

SOCIETY NEWS OF OTHER TOWNS

(Crowded Out From Last Week)

Blue Creek

Edith Kennedy is visited relatives in Lancaster at this writing. Wm. Parks, wife and grand-daughter visited G. M. Parks and family in Pickaway county this week.

Delo Wiggins and wife of Benton township, were the guests of L. C. Swackhammer and family here on Main street last Sunday.

Wes Anderson and family, of Fairfield county, called on Lydia Garrett and family here on South Main street a few days this week.

G. L. Smith, of Rocky Alley, is contemplating moving to Chillicothe this week.

Abner Swackhammer, wife and son visited relatives in Pickaway county last Saturday and Sunday.

Bundy Smith is very poorly at this writing. He had the whooping cough and lung pneumonia set in, which makes his recovery very doubtful.

Lulu Green, of Pole Ridge, who has been very low with typhoid fever, is getting better.

Amanda Swackhammer is a great sufferer with a gathered hand caused from a bruise.

A rain is very much needed in this vicinity at this time in order to make big potatoes out of the little ones.

The Swackhammer saw mill company have moved their mill to a new set where they are now ready to commence business.

Stringtown

Quite a number from this place attended the ice cream social at Zion, Saturday evening.

Mr. Lehman and wife spent last Wednesday with their son Walter and family.

Estella Murphy, of Rockbridge, spent Saturday night and Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. Emma Beery.

John Weaver was in the employ of James Huggins, Monday.

Mrs. Noah Beougher called on Mrs. James Woods, Thursday.

Wm. Lenz and family, of Honey Fork, were seen passing through this place Sunday.

Charles Clark spent Wednesday evening with Lew Rogers and family.

Mrs. W. L. North and aunt, Katie Smith, called on Noah Beougher and family Sunday afternoon.

Webster Clowe and mother visited relatives at Perry county last week.

James Huggins and family were the guests of James Brown and family Saturday night.

George Kimball and wife took dinner with Allen Murphy's, Sunday.

Mrs. Eliza Warthman spent last Wednesday with Thomas McPeck and family.

Mart Goss and family were Logan shoppers Saturday.

J. D. Higley called on Mrs. Peter Weaver, Sunday evening.

Crossingville

Plowing corn, looking and wishing for rain is the order of the day. More so the latter.

Mrs. John Manning and Mrs. David Phillips were the guests of Mrs. William Cook, one day last week.

Mrs. Edward Pierson called on Mrs. August Hildebrandt, one evening last week.

Frank Kinn and Edward Pierson were shearing sheep for John Manning, Monday.

Lew Rogers and children are able to be about again, after a very serious siege of the measles.

Mrs. David Phillips, after spending several days with relatives at this place, returned to her home in Logan, Wednesday.

Joshua Nihiser spent Sunday with Thomas Baues, of this place.

The news is short and so is our pencil, but we wish success to the DEMOCRAT-SENTINEL.

NIFTY.

THE MEN WHO KNOW
THE SUPERIOR
QUALITIES OF TOWERS
SLICKERS SUITS
AND HATS
are the men who have put them to the roughest tests in the roughest weather.
Get the original
Towers Fish Brand
made since 1836
CAPTAIN FREE FOR THE ARMY
100-4 TOWERS CO. BOSTON, U.S.A.

Pike Run

Marin Devault and James McQuary, of this place, made a business trip to Laurelville, Saturday of this week.

William D. Brandt, of Logan, was seen in our midst this week.

Elsworth Arledge and family, of near Whisler, was visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Smith and family over last Sunday.

Wallace Arledge, wife and son, of Whisler, were the guests of the latter's brother, Ambrose Stephenson and family over Sunday.

Mrs. Edna Wiggins and two children, of Blue Creek, were calling on her parents, Mr. Wm. Sitz, Friday of this week.

Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Haynes, were calling on her parents, Mr. Lewis Smith and family on Thursday of this week.

Mrs. John Sitz and children, of Laurelville, were in our midst on last Saturday.

Crops are looking very fine as the ripening of wheat is near.

Charles W. Wright, of Logan, was through our country this week.

Sunday school is in progress at Mt. Carmel, prayer meeting on Saturday nights, Sunday school at 9 p. m. and prayer meeting at 10 p. m. on Sundays.

Martin Kneese has purchased Geo. Sells property and expects to move there this fall.

Mrs. Martha Smith and daughter made a business trip to Adelphi on Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Jane Evert, of Stoutsville, was brought to Mt. Carmel on Tuesday of last week and laid to rest. Quite a large crowd attended the funeral.

Rev. Clark expects to hold services at Pike Run Church, Sunday night.

The road supervisor, E. E. Hawk, is making great improvements in the lower Pike Run roads.

The venerable old lady, Grandma Cottrill, is visiting her daughter on Laurel Creek. She is in her 97th year and is able to get around pretty well yet.

Lewis Smith and wife, of this place, were calling on their daughter, Mrs. Charles Taylor, of Haynes last Sunday.

Geo. Crow, of lower Pike Run, was in our midst last week.

Mrs. Isaac Swackhammer is superintendent of Mt. Carmel Sunday-school.

Reports from the sick list of our community are as follows:

Lulu Green, of this place is reported better at this writing.

Elsworth Smith has a very sick child with pneumonia fever. His physician is H. G. Barton.

Mrs. Kneese, who has been in poor health for some time, is worse at this writing.

Levi Ackley, who has been bothered with lung trouble for some time, has been stricken with a parietic stroke, and liable to pass away at any time.

Dollie A. Stephenson, the small child of A. E. Stephenson, is improving slowly.

C. W. Francis is in very poor health, being bothered with heart trouble.

Benj. Davis is in very poor health.

LITTLE ELK.

Rockbridge Route 1

Clayton Fickel wife and daughter Helen, of Logan, spent last Sunday with Benj. Beougher and family.

Miss Lizzie Beougher, of Logan, called on Miss Etta Beougher last Saturday.

Geo. Dupler passed through this vicinity Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Beougher, who has been on the sick list for the past two weeks, is reported some better.

Chris Kline and wife, of Cola, Valley, spent last Sunday with Frank Beougher and family.

B. I. Edwards and wife were Logan shoppers Tuesday.

Jennie Beougher and Della Mathias attended the Sunday-school Convention at Wellston.

Solomon Primer and wife, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Lusaters, of Florida, were the guests of Mrs. John Beougher.

Mrs. Henry Federer called on Mrs. Frank Beougher, Tuesday afternoon.

A. F. Mathias and daughter Florence, passed through this vicinity Tuesday afternoon.

Barney Kline, of Pleasant Hill, passed through this neighborhood Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Florence Analt, of Lancaster, visited her sister, Mrs. Frank Beougher, one last week.

Cedar Grove

Mrs. Clara Southard and son Arthur, of Sabina, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Minnie Allen.

O. C. Culp and Joseph Vest, who have been painting at the Hocking County Children's Home for the past month, spent Sunday at home.

James Bickie, Addison Sater, Aea, and Burrill Goodman and Charles Moore, of Union Furnace, the Misses Edith and Lulu Hardisty, of Haydensville, Nelle Mathiott, of Logan, and quite a circle of home citizens picniced at Old Man's Cave, Sunday.

Misses Nettie Allen, Clara Southard, Nelle Mathiott, Clara Kern, and Messrs. O. C. Culp, Emmet Allen, Jerry and Sumner Róse and Elmer Nihiser were entertained at the home of Mr. L. W. Beery and wife.

Miss Ora Hicks, of the Children's Home is visiting with Geo. Hutton and wife.

Several from here attended the entertainment at Ilesboro, Sunday night.

Elmer Nihiser and Flora Diltz were the recent guests of Jacob Bainter.

Doris Poling, of Logan, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. Joseph Vest and wife.

Pearl Cook and Geo. Hicks, of Black Jack, were the guests of Geo. Culp, Sunday.

Miss Nellie Allen entertained Saturday night with a candy party in honor of her sister, Mrs. Clara Southard, of Sabina, the attendance was large, the music good, and everyone delighted and expecting the early return of another program.

Eagle Mills

The farmers of this creek are watching their crops grow as the weather is fine and it produces fast.

John Huffman, of this place, met with a very bad accident last week by a mule kicking him and breaking his arm in two places and bruised him up in other ways.

Sylvester D. Devault is on the sick list at present time with La Grippe.

There was an ice cream supper held here last Saturday night. A very large crowd was present and a nice time had.

Gurnie Smith and his lady friend, Miss Lillie Hoy, of Pike Run, were in our midst Saturday night.

Elsworth Lacie, our leading merchant, is doing a very good business. It is the store that treats you straight, gives full weight and low prices.

Uncle Tom Watson is still able to come to Mt. Carmel every Sunday and lead meeting.

Jackson Devault is working for S. D. Oviatt this summer.

Sam'l Mercer had a large and fine crop of cherries this year.

Buena Vista

The farmers are busy getting their crops attended in our part of the country.

Mrs. Pearl Minnie and children, of Lancaster, are visiting her father, Jacob Kane, at present.

Mrs. Salem Shoemaker has gone to Columbus to visit her daughter, Mrs. Chester Bigham.

A. L. Kane and family attended the Patterson commencement held in Mt. Carmel church at Clearport, Saturday night.

Edward Thomas, wife and daughter were the guests of Alfalfa Thomas and family, of Drinkle, Sunday.

Myrtle Stump has returned home after a visit with Mrs. Noah Friend.

Lillian Canfield, of this place, is visiting friends at Rockbridge and Logan.

Mrs. Cora Creiglott and two sons visited Mr. Creiglott and family, of Pleasant Valley, Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Ella McBride was the guest of her brother, J. P. Bright, Wednesday.

FOR NEW AND OLD METAL, FELT, CANVAS, PAPER, BURLAP, RUBBER AND ASBESTOS SURFACES.

We positively guarantee RUBBERKOTE Roof and Iron Paint to last six years.

In any case where it fails to do this we agree to supply, free of charge, sufficient paint to keep surface in good condition for the stated length of time.

STOPS THE LEAKS

The most elastic, free-flowing, heat-proofing and lowest cost black paint on the market.

IF INTERESTED

write us, state name of your dealer, and we will tell you all about RUBBERKOTE and send you each certificate, entitling you to credit of 50 per cent on your first purchase.

Manufactured only by The Pioneer Manufacturing Co. CLEVELAND, OHIO, U.S.A.

FOR SALE BY

J. A. GEIGER

LOGAN, OHIO

ONE WAS THREE.

Carbonhill

H. G. Hansel and P. D. Sloan were at this place last week.

Mr. Isaac Inboden and son Herbert, of Marion township, spent last Saturday and Sunday here.

Mr. Steven Brine of Dundas, was calling here one evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shaffer of Logan, spent last Sunday here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley North, from near Nelsonville, attended religious services here last Sunday evening.

Mrs. Thomas Green and son Joe of Athens, spent part of last week here.

Mrs. Oliver Crawford of Nelsonville, spent last Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. John Shunk, of this place.

Mr. Thomas Sweeney and family spent part of last week near Kachelmacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Powers and daughters, Thelma and Winnifred, of Coshocton, and Mrs. Hollis Wyman and son Joe, of McArthur, spent Sunday with W. W. Morrison, of this place.

Mr. Wm. Clary and family of Bailey's Run, spent Sunday, June 7th, with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Magee, of this place.

Mr. Pete Dupler of Monday, was seen here last Friday evening.

Mr. Joe Lenegar of this place, while strolling near the Lax and Knight coal mine, had his attention called by a strange noise, and on halting, he discovered a monster rattle-snake near him in the leaves, and we all quit our work for the time being and went to Mr. Lenegar's rescue, and in a few minutes we had his rattles dangling at our belt. This is the second one in two weeks, so every one should make themselves a committee of one to look out for the monsters while out strolling.

In mentioning the marriage of Mr. James Shaffer and Miss Mattie Blosser last week, we could not give the presents, or names of givers, but will try to do so now: Miss Grace Inboden, table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blosser, salad bowl; Miss Alpha Shaffer, salad bowl; J. G. Blosser, berry set and two pictures; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Shaffer, table cloth; Mr. and Mrs. J. Kennedy, berry set; John Smith, dresser scarf; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartoe, salad bowl; John Griffith, cream pitcher and sugar bowl; Mr. and Mrs. J. Shaffer, cracker jar; Mr. and Mrs. I. A. Blosser, cake plate; Mrs. E. Nye, cracker jar.

Children's Day Program.

A fine program was rendered by the members of Pleasant Hill, Sunday forenoon, the recitations and songs were rendered very interesting.

Following is the program:

Song—"Our Youth are marching On," By Choir

Response Reading

Prayer

Song—"Love Makes Told Worth" By Choir

Recitation—"Our Day," Goldie Miller

Dialogue—"Greetings," Stanley Hull

Recitation—"If I Knew," F. Brown

Dialogue—"The Boy's Day," J. Wright and Fred Roe

Scripture Reading—"Joseph's Dream," Jesse Fraustre

Song—"Cheerful Companions," Primary Class

Recitation—"Sorrowful Bobby," Robert Wright

Recitation—"Mamma's Kisses," Arthur Roe

Recitation—"Children in Africa," Goldie Miller

Recitation—"Little Feet Be Careful," Charles Wright

Recitation—"The Boy and the Hoe," James Wright

Recitation—"I Can Stand," Fred Roe

Recitation—"Don't Drink, My Boy, Tonight," Fred Roe

Recitation—"If I Were a Rose," Mabel Reedy

Recitation—"The Blessed Bible," By Five Characters

Recitation—"Small Troubles," Rubie Brown

Recitation—"Here Am I," Floyd Brown

Recitation—"The Presentation of Samuel," D. Reedy

Recitation—"Bring Them In," By Choir

Recitation—"Go as Gifts," Goldie Miller

Recitation—"Jesus and the Children," J. S. Poling

Song—"When the Children Sing" By Choir

Pole Ridge

John Lively made a flying trip to Laurelville, one day last week.

Mrs. Carrie Koehler and Mrs. Minnie Burns, of Columbus, are visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity.

Homer Strous made a business trip to Laurelville, one day last week.

Walter Pierce and family returned last Tuesday, after a short visit with relatives near Ashville.

Mary Pierce, Cora Price and Mary Best were the guests of W. H. Orr and family of Sams Creek, Friday last.

D. H. Lappen and wife, of Logan, were the guests of John Lively and family, last week.

Grandma Orr is on the sick list, at this writing.

Amos Vanfossan, of Circleville, was calling on friends and relatives on this ridge, Wednesday last.

Ottie Dorsey was a Laurelville shopper Saturday.

Homer Strous expects to have a driving horse in the near future, as he was breaking it to lead, Sunday morning.

W. H. Orr and wife, of Sams Creek were the guests of Mary A. Best, Sunday last.

Ottie Dorsey and William Dehaven were taking a pleasant drive on our streets, Sunday morning.

So. Bloomingville

The original and only Si Hubbard has been scouring this neck of the woods in quest of subscribers for the DEMOCRAT. We notice he still has that longing look for sausage and corn cakes. Success to you Si.

J. Johnson and family called on Geo. Davis, last Sunday.

Our road superintendent, Geo. Dennis has been busy, the past week, working the roads.

A large crowd took in the excursion from this place to Tarlton, on last Sunday to attend the Odd Fellows decoration, which was held at that place.

Married on Saturday, June 6, 1908, M. E. Brown and Hazel Oldfield. The groom is the jolly carrier on Route 2, from this place.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Nan Oldfield, and has been a teacher in the public school for sometime past. The scribe joins with their many friends, wishing them success and true happiness.

A large crowd attended lodge here, last Tuesday night. After lodge was over, which was at a late hour, the boys concluded that it would be proper to pay the newly wedded couple a visit as the groom is a member of the Order.

So they marched to the residence of Mr. Brown and gave them an old fashioned serenade.

Charles Dennis, of Canal Winchester, is visiting relatives here, at present.

Epriam Cooper and wife were called to Logan, last week, by the death of the latter's brother, Jerome Nihizer.

Chas Pleukharp and wife, of Cedar Falls, were seen in our village, last Saturday evening.

David Anderson had the misfortune to get his foot badly cut, one day last week.

Pearl Smith, of Logan, was in our city, last week.

There will be an excursion from this place to Adelphi, on Sunday, June 28, on account of the I. O. O. F. and improved O. R. M. decoration, which will be held at the Mineral Spring grounds. Everybody attend.

Oscar Simmons, of New Plymouth, called on Andrew Woodgeard, last Sunday.

The derrick is completed on the Tatman farm, and everything in readiness for drilling.

Chas. Oldfield has returned from Logan, where he has been visiting.

Big Pine Valley

Wilbur Vanfossan and family and Mable Paxton were the guests of W. M. Loy and family, Sunday afternoon.

Vern Kitchen's smiling face was seen on our streets, last Wednesday.

David Lama and family visited his brother, Sam Lama, of Pursell, last Sunday.

John Klinker made a pleasant call at David Lama's, Sunday.

Hazel Febus, who has been working for her brother, Harry Febus, of Happy ridge, has returned to her home at this place.

Mahlon Paxton and wife visited their son, Alfred Paxton, of Whisler, last Sunday.

Retha Huffman is working for Mrs. Therman Bicker, of Cedar Grove.

Homer Denison is in the employ of Vern Kitchen, this week.

The following visited Thomas Vorhees and wife Sunday: David Wilard and wife, of Happy ridge; W. Chilcote and family, of Apple Blossom Valley.

Charles and Miles Wilard were seen on our streets, one day last week.

Enid Cupp made a flying trip to Laurelville, Sunday afternoon.

William Loy and Harley Paxton made a business trip to Adelphi, last Thursday evening.

Catharine and Velma Lama were the guests of Sam Lama and family, of Pursell, Saturday night and Sunday.

Bremen Route 1

Sarah Larimer, who has been sick for the past week, is some better at this writing. We hope she will soon be able to be out again.

J. H. Scholl and family were Bremen visitors Saturday.

W. H. Funk and family were Logan shoppers Saturday and Sunday.

Emanuel Scholl and wife, Jacob Scholl and wife, Mrs. Mary Weidner, all of North Berne, James Graffias and wife, Peter Schmeltzer and wife, Mrs. Mary Hockman and John and Phillip Schmeltzer were the Sunday guests of Wm. Scholl and family.